The Customer shall be responsible and liable to the Organizer for any breaches of the GTC and/or the Regulations, for any failure to comply with current legislation and for any acts or omissions whatsoever caused by the Customer and/or, where applicable, by the Riders in whose name and on whose behalf the Customer places the order, without prejudice to the Organizer's right to hold the Riders liable and to take any action whatsoever against them.

The Customer and the Riders are solely responsible for the responsibility, protection and supervision of all items in their custody and/or of which they are the owners. The Organizer assumes no responsibility in this respect, in particular in the event of theft or damage to the material goods of the Riders.

The Customer undertakes to take out all insurance necessary to cover the risks associated with its activities, the benefit of the Products and Services and the above stipulations, with a company known to be solvent, and to maintain this insurance in a state of validity throughout the term of the Contract.

10. SPORTING PREROGATIVES RELATED TO THE ORGANIZATION OF THE EVENT

The Customer acknowledges that FVE is the official organizer of the Event. However, the Customer acknowledges that in organizing the Event, FVE is subject (i) to the laws and regulations applicable to it, in particular the provisions of the French Sports Code, and (ii) to the safety and police regulations (such as, in particular, staggered working hours, total or partial closure of a site or public area, postponement) that may be decided and implemented by any competent authority.

The exercise of the Organizer's sporting prerogatives and the development and/or modification (for whatever reason) of the Event do not in any way modify the Customer's obligations, in particular financial obligations.

The Customer undertakes to respect the sporting prerogatives of the Organizer and to comply with all resulting decisions, which may relate in particular to the cancellation or modification of the Event, access to the Event site, the presence or absence of the public, the safety of the Riders and the public and public order.

If circumstances so require, the Organizer reserves the right to modify at any time the route, the position of refreshment points and timing points, to postpone the date and/or times of the Event, to stop the Event in progress, to cancel it or to set up an alternative route.

The Customer undertakes not to contest any decision of the Organizer falling within its prerogatives.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party may be held liable for a breach of any of its obligations resulting from an event of force majeure as defined by article 1218 of the French Civil Code ("an event beyond the debtor's control, which could not reasonably have been foreseen when the contract was concluded, and the effects of which cannot be avoided by appropriate measures, prevents the debtor from fulfilling its obligation").

12. LEGAL WARRANTY OF CONFORMITY

Products sold by the Organizer to the Customer, in particular merchandising products, are guaranteed for two (2) years pursuant to articles L. 217-3 to L. 217-20 of the French Consumer Code and articles 1641 to 1648 and 2232 of the French Civil Code.

In accordance with article D. 211-2 of the French Consumer Code, information on the implementation of legal warranties is as follows:

Consumers have a period of two years from the date of delivery of the goods in which to invoke the legal warranty of conformity in the event of a lack of conformity. During this period, the consumer is only required to establish the existence of the lack of conformity, and not the date of its appearance.

Where the contract for the sale of goods provides for the supply of digital content or a digital service on a continuous basis for a period of more than two years, the legal warranty applies to this digital content or digital service throughout the period of supply. During this period, the consumer is only required to establish the existence of the lack of conformity affecting the digital content or service, and not the date of its appearance.

The legal warranty of conformity obliges the professional, where applicable, to provide all updates necessary to maintain the conformity of the good. The legal warranty of conformity gives the consumer the right to repair or replace the good within thirty days of his request, free of charge and without any major inconvenience for him.

If the good is repaired under the legal warranty of conformity, the consumer benefits from a six-month extension of the initial warranty. If the consumer asks for the good to be repaired, but the seller requires it to be replaced, the legal warranty of conformity is renewed for a period of two years from the date of replacement of the good.

The consumer may obtain a reduction in the purchase price by retaining the good or terminate the contract by obtaining a full refund against return of the good, if :

- 1° The professional refuses to repair or replace the good;*
- 2° The goods are repaired or replaced within thirty days ;*
- 3° The repair or replacement of the good causes a major inconvenience for the consumer, in particular when the consumer definitively bears the cost of taking back or removing the non-conforming good, or if he bears the cost of installing the repaired or replacement good;*
- 4° The non-conformity of the property persists despite the seller's unsuccessful attempt to bring it into conformity.*

The consumer is also entitled to a reduction in the price of the goods, or to rescission of the contract, if the lack of conformity is so serious as to justify immediate price reduction or rescission of the contract. In such cases, the consumer is not obliged to request repair or replacement of the goods beforehand.

The consumer is not entitled to rescind the sale if the lack of conformity is minor.

Any period of immobilization of the good for the purpose of repair or replacement suspends the remaining warranty period until delivery of the reconditioned good. The rights mentioned above result from the application of articles L. 217-1 to L. 217-32 of the French Consumer Code.

A seller who obstructs the implementation of the legal guarantee of conformity in bad faith is liable to a civil fine of up to 300,000 euros, which may be increased to 10% of average annual sales (article L. 241-5 of the French Consumer Code).

The consumer also benefits from the legal warranty against hidden defects, in application of articles 1641 to 1649 of the French Civil Code, for a period of two years from the discovery of the defect. This warranty entitles the consumer to a price reduction if the good is kept, or to a full refund in exchange for the return of the good.
